SUMMER TRAINING

Our first summer training session, led by training professional Chad Hines of Willow Creek Kennels, has come and gone with a great turn out despite the heat. Two more sessions are planned for July 23rd and August 6th if you were unable to make the first one. The fields next to the parking lot is cut with many edges off tall grass for dog work. I am sure by the second session much of the area south of Hunter Road will be cut also.

With most of this year's students being puppies and first time dog owners, the subject was heel, whoa, and the start of steady training. Chad spent some time doing demonstrations with members dogs before hitting the field for bird work. Pictured (right) is Chad teaching Bailey, owned by Denise Koslowski, heel and whoa. (Below) Mark Dinsmore stands with his dog on the steady box while Chad works with a quail on a tether.

Look forward to seeing more members for the next two sessions and be sure to bring something orange to wear if you want to watch retrieving work with live fire.

HUNT TEST UPDATE

The SCVBC hunt test held in June 18 & 19 at Kelly Farm had full entries both days, turning away some disappointed people with their late entries. Think early entry if you are considering the hunt test. You have until entry closing to cancel and your checks are returned.

This year we had 11 Brittany's entered. Those belonging to club members; Brandon with three, Droel with one, Nibbe with 2.

Thanks to Ed Hanson for taking over as secretary. He did a fine job. Thanks especially to Gail Satak for trying to be three marshals at the same time. We were really short of help. Also thanks to Brian Lane, Curt Brandon, Mark and Diana Brennhofer, Bob Fischer and Denise Koslowski. And of course to our gunners and judges "We couldn't have done it without you."
