Treasurer report: read and approved

OLD BUSINESS

● Seminars and summer picnic people needed to organize committees and find volunteers.

● Micheal is in contact with a vet from St. Cloud for a presentation on first aid and will done during one of the summer training days.

● Metro Pheasants Forever banquet was held and our club received a sponsor print and items we can use for door prizes at our clubs next banquet.

NEW BUSINESS

● Spring trial came and went. We had Friday fish fry and dinner out at Russels Saturday evening. Both of which were excellent. Thank you Steve for the fish fry. Only in Mn can one eat walleye on the eve of the fishing opener.

● Walking trial on track and entries starting to come in. Send yours in before it fills up. Stakes will include Walking Gun Dog, Walking Puppy, Walking Derby, and Walking Amateur Gun Dog.

● DNR is close to purchasing Langhie Hills Hunting Preserve. Langhie is approx. 1000 acres and is suppose to be set up similar to four brooks with passes available to train. We will keep you posted.

● Hunt Test: Micheal has been in contact with ACK and had verbal okay. Waiting for formal final approval. Entries to close the Tuesday before Hunt Test.

● Mark Dinsmore to head up summer training this year. Full details in next months newsletter. Check calendar for dates at four brooks.

Meeting adjourned at 7:45

— Brian Lange, Secretary, Field Trial Secretary

FUN IN THE SNOW

Ruby & Jade with Carlos (the man holding up the pheasant) in the snow finding those birds! That was the last real snow they had in Hoffman west of Alexandria 2005. We had so much fun! We found 8 roosters, (really Jade & Ruby did) in a 2 mile stretch, did not shoot all of them.
